Colossians 1:15-20

The Preeminence of Christ

<sup>15</sup> He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. <sup>16</sup> For by<sup>[a]</sup> him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. <sup>17</sup> And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 18 And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

Luke 22:20

Jesus is standing in as the one who did not break the covenant even as He is about to pay the price as the one who did break the covenant.

The non-breaker of the covenant gets to rewrite a new covenant in any way they want.

The old covenant:
disobey and die

The new covenant:
believe and live
